

Worksheet: Future Perfect vs. Future Perfect Continuous Tense

Name _____ Date _____

Part 1: Grammar Review

The future perfect tense describes an action that will be completed by a certain time in the future. We form it with will have + past participle. It emphasizes the completion of an action.

Example: By next year, I will have graduated from university. 🎓

The future perfect continuous tense describes an ongoing action that will continue up until a certain point in the future. We form it with will have been + verb-ing. It emphasizes the duration of the action.

Example: By 5 p.m., she will have been studying for three hours. 📖
