

Worksheet: Mastering Relative Clauses and Conjunctions

Name: _____ Date: _____

Part 1: Relative Clauses

Instructions: Combine the two sentences into one complex sentence using a relative pronoun (who, whom, whose, which, that). Use commas for non-defining clauses where necessary.

1. The scientist won a Nobel Prize. She discovered a new planet.

2. I found the keys. I had lost them yesterday.

3. The hotel was very expensive. We stayed there over the summer.

4. My brother is moving to London. He is a graphic designer.

5. The dog belongs to my neighbor. It never stops barking at night.

6. That is the boy. His father is a famous actor.

7. The cake was delicious. My grandmother baked it for my birthday.

8. The city is famous for its museums. I visited it last year.

9. The students were praised by the principal. They volunteered at the shelter.

10. This is the park. I used to play here when I was a child.

Part 2: Conjunctions

Instructions: Fill in the blanks with the most appropriate conjunction from the list below. (because, although, unless, but, and, since, if, or, yet, so)

11. I wanted to go for a run, _____ it started pouring rain.
  12. _____ it was freezing outside, she decided not to wear a coat.
  13. You won't pass the exam _____ you start studying more consistently.
  14. He was feeling ill, _____ he went to see a doctor immediately.
  15. Would you prefer to go to the cinema, _____ would you rather stay home?
  16. I haven't seen my cousin _____ we were both ten years old.
  17. The project was difficult _____ rewarding in the end.
  18. _____ you finish your chores early, we can go get ice cream.
  19. She practiced the piano every day, _____ she won the competition.
  20. I love reading historical fiction _____ it helps me understand the past.
-

Part 3: Mixed Practice & Error Correction

Instructions: Rewrite the following sentences to correct the grammatical errors or to make them more sophisticated using both relative clauses and conjunctions.

21. The car is blue. It belongs to Mr. Smith. It is parked outside. (Combine into one sentence)
_____
22. I like the teacher, he is very helpful. (Correct the comma splice)
_____
23. The house which I live in it is very old. (Correct the pronoun error)
_____
24. Although it was late, but he kept working. (Correct the double conjunction)
_____
25. The woman whose lives next door is a doctor. (Correct the relative pronoun)
_____

Answer Key (For Teacher Use)

1. The scientist who discovered a new planet won a Nobel Prize.
2. I found the keys that/which I had lost yesterday.
3. The hotel where we stayed over the summer was very expensive.
4. My brother, who is a graphic designer, is moving to London.
5. The dog, which belongs to my neighbor, never stops barking at night.
6. That is the boy whose father is a famous actor.
7. The cake that/which my grandmother baked for my birthday was delicious.
8. The city, which I visited last year, is famous for its museums.
9. The students who volunteered at the shelter were praised by the principal.
10. This is the park where I used to play when I was a child.
11. but
12. Although
13. unless
14. so
15. or
16. since
17. yet / but
18. If
19. and / so
20. because
21. The blue car that is parked outside belongs to Mr. Smith.
22. I like the teacher because he is very helpful. (OR: I like the teacher; he is very helpful.)
23. The house which/that I live in is very old. (Removed "it")
24. Although it was late, he kept working. (Removed "but")
25. The woman who lives next door is a doctor. (Changed "whose" to "who")